Ephesians: Finding Your ID in Christ
Speaking Truth in Love with Grace
March 4th, 2018
Ephesians 4.25

Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.

Ephesians 4.25

I. Speak _____

a. Remember that the ultimate truth is the _____.

b. How _____ do I know what is true?

II. Speak Truth in _____

a. We can love because _____ has loved us.

b. Is my truth-telling based on a Christ-centered _____?

III. Speak Truth in Love with _____

a. Because God has been _____ with us we must be gracious with others.

b. Am I _____ in my truth-telling?

A Christian Community should be marked by speaking truth in love with grace.

Some Questions to Consider

1. When you speak truth, do you pause to consider if you are doing it in a loving way?
2. How have you spoken in the past week?
3. Is grace present in your speech?
4. Who do you need to apologize to for the way in which you have spoken?

On Your Own or with Your Family

The Book of Proverbs is incredibly helpful in teaching us how we should behave when it comes to our own mouths. Read the following passages and explain how they fit into the concept of speaking truth in love with grace: Proverbs 10.31-32; 12.18; 15.1-4; 16.24; 31.26.

In what relationships do you find it easiest to speak truth without love? Why do you think you find it so easy to speak that way to these people?

Can you give a specific example of when someone spoke truth to you in live with grace? How did you respond? Would you respond differently if it were today?

Ask God to help you speak truth in love with grace this week.
