Pastor Jason's Notes Singleness and the Glory of God July 15th, 2018 1 Corinthians 7.17-35

I. Singleness is a Calling, not a Season (1 Corinthians 7.17-20)

A. God is fully engaged in our present _____.

B. Are we focused on our _____ or waiting for a season to end?

See also: 2 Peter 1.3; Jeremiah 1.5

II. Single People can Model the Sufficiency of Christ on a Powerful Level. (1 Corinthians 7.21-24)

A. We have been bought with a _____.

B. What kind of _____ are we preaching with our lives?

See also: 1 Peter 2.9-10; Matthew 16.24-26

III. Singleness can be an Asset to the Church and the Kingdom. (1 Corinthians 7.32-35)

A. God has consistently used _____ people to do great things for the kingdom.

B. Are we more concerned about being _____ by God in how He sees fit or how we see fit?

See also: Matthew 6.9-13; 33; Galatians 3.27-29

Whose kingdom are we living for?

On Your Own or with Your Family

In what ways do you find yourself waiting for what is next rather than viewing your current state as part of God's calling on your life?

Think of some of the single people in your life that have modeled Christ's sufficiency on a powerful level. Write an encouragement card or a thank-you note of some kind to them this week.

Reread Paul's entire passage from 1 Corinthians 7.17-35. What ideas in this passage have you not heard or thought of before? Why do you think Paul felt it was so important to write this section?

In what ways have you tried to "instruct" God as to how you should be used? Where could you be more submissive to God's plan rather than your own? Pray and ask that the Holy Spirit would help you to become more like Christ and more submissive to God's will.

If you are single, where can you apply the truths of this passage to your life today? What about if you aren't single?
